

Seminar paper

Betting against beta

a study of proposition 1 & 2 in american equity markets

Tobias Dines Schlünssen and Conrad Frederik Kromann

Advisor: Jacob Lundbeck Serup

13 March 2026

Institute: Department of Economics
Faculty: Faculty of Social Sciences (SAMF)
Author(s): Tobias Dines Schlünssen (GFS189)
Conrad Frederik Kromann (RTL959)
Title and subtitle: Betting against beta
- A study of proposition 1 & 2 in american equity
markets
Description: [A short abstract or description of your thesis goes here.]
Advisor: Jacob Lundbeck Serup
Date: June 2nd, 2026

Table of content

Table of content	3
1 Introduction	4
1.1 Background	4
1.2 Research Questions	4
2 Data	5
2.1 Data Description	5
2.2 Data Cleaning	5
3 Analysis	6
3.1 Exploratory Data Analysis	6
3.2 Statistical Analysis	6
4 Results	7
4.1 Visualisations	7
4.2 Key Findings	7
5 Conclusion	8
5.1 Conclusion	8
5.2 Limitations	8
5.3 Future Work	8
5.4 References	8

Chapter 1

Introduction

1.1 Background

[Person A] — Describe the background and motivation for the analysis here.

1.2 Research Questions

- Question 1
- Question 2
- Question 3

Chapter 2

Data

2.1 Data Description

[Person A] — Describe your dataset here.

2.2 Data Cleaning

Chapter 3

Analysis

3.1 Exploratory Data Analysis

[Person B] — Perform and describe your exploratory analysis here.

3.2 Statistical Analysis

Chapter 4

Results

4.1 Visualisations

[Person B] — Present your results and plots here.

4.2 Key Findings

Summarise the key findings from the analysis.

Chapter 5

Conclusion

5.1 Conclusion

[Person A or B] — Summarise what you found and what it means.

5.2 Limitations

- Limitation 1
- Limitation 2

5.3 Future Work

Suggestions for further analysis or improvements.

5.4 References